YPSILANTI DAILY PRESS

Ypsilanti, Michigan, Monday, May 7, 1945

The Victors And The Vanquished

Shown above are the sparkplugs of the successful team which beat the world's most formidable fighting machine, Hitler's mechanized Army, into submission after long years of heart breaking struggle, sacrifice and "blood, sweat and tears". The late Pres. Roosevelt, left, and Prime Minister Churchill, right, linked their fortunes with those of Chiang Kai-shek, center right, Chinese generalissimo and Chas. G. I. Joseph Stalin, center left, to force over tightening hands of steel around Germany, Japan and their ill fated ally, Italy.

Hitler, left who led the Nazi party from its beer hall beginning through the frenzied war worship period which culminated in his almost successful world conquest plan, is shown in a mood of frustrated impotence. He was able to arouse his people to unequalled and unreasoning devotion but lacked the quality of leadership which could inspire his men to new effort once the tide of battle had turned against them and they saw armies of vengeance marching on the homeland. In the final crisis his own leaders saw the folly of his ambitions.

The greatest war in history ended today in Europe with the unconditional surrender of Germany.

The surrender of the Reich to the Western Allies and Russia was made at Gen. Eisenhower's headquarters at Reims, France by Col. Gen. Gustaf Jodl, Chief of Staff for the German army.

This was announced officially after German broadcasts told the German people that Grand Admiral Karl Doenitz had ordered the capitulation of all fighting forces, and called off the U-boat war.

The surrender took place at a little red school house which is the headquarters of Gen. Eisenhower.

The surrender which brought the war in Europe to a formal end after five years, eight months and six days of bloodshed and destruction was signed for Germany by Jodl, the new Chief of Staff of the German army.

It was signed for the Supreme Allied Command by Lt. Gen. Walter Bedell Smith, Chief of Staff for Gen. Eisenhower.

It was also signed by Gen. Ivan Susloparoff for Russia and by Gen. Francois Sevez for France.

Joy at the news was tempered only by the realization that the war against

Japan remains to be resolved, with many casualties still ahead.

Unconditional surrender of the beaten remnants of his legions was announced by the Germans. The historic news began breaking with a Danish broadcast that Norway had been surrendered unconditionally by its conquerors. Then the new German foreign minister, Ludwig Schwerdtfeger, announced to the German people, shortly after 2 p. m. (8 a. m. Eastern War Time), that after almost six years struggle we have succeeded.

Van Kleeck announced Grand Admiral Karl Doenitz had ordered the unconditional surrender of all German forces.

The world waited tensely. Then at 8:35 a. m. E.W.T. came the flash from Reims, France, telling of the signing at Gen. Eisenhower's headquarters of the unconditional surrender at 8:41 E.W.T.

Japan remains to be resolved, with many casualties still ahead.

THIS WAS THE ROAD TO VICTORY

Milestones in the greatest and most devastating war in history; one that threatened to change our civilization.

1 JAUNTILY AND FIRM in belief they were supermen, Hitler's Nazi hordes shocked the democratic world by invading Poland Sept. 1, 1939. Two days later Britain and France declared war.

2 WARSAW SURRENDERED SEPT. 27, 1939. Next day the Nazis invited Russia to take part in the kill. The stricken country was at once split between them. Here are the "partitioners."

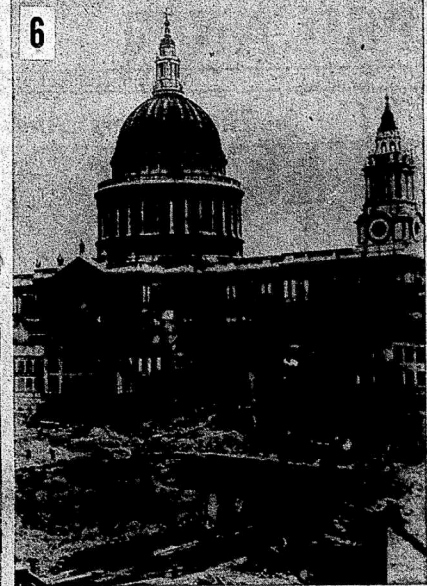

3 AIDED BY TRAITORS such as Vidkun Quisling, Germany invaded Norway and Denmark April 9, 1940. Both fell by May 3, 1940.

4 NEXT CAME HOLLAND, Belgium and Luxembourg. On May 14, 1940, four days after Rotterdam had been bombed unmercifully from the air, as shown above, Holland fell. Luxembourg collapsed without a struggle. Belgium quit May 28.

5 WITH THE LOW countries now under their control, the Nazis swarmed over Northern France and on May 30, 1940 trapped 400,000 British at the channel port of Dunkirk. Wading and swimming out to rafts, small cruisers and similar craft rushed over from England, a large portion of the troops escaped. France quit June 17, 1940.

6 ALL SIDES AGREE Hitler missed defeating England when he failed to cross the channel immediately after Dunkirk. Instead, he waited until August 4, 1940, then started bombing London, blotting out areas like this near St. Paul's.

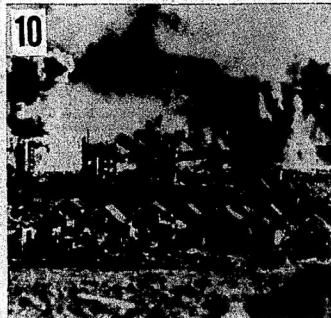

7 ITALY JOINED HITLER June 10, 1940. These next fell: Romania, Hungary, Slovakia, Bulgaria, Yugoslavia, Greece, Crete. Then Hitler, Italy and Romania turned on Russia, June 22, 1941.

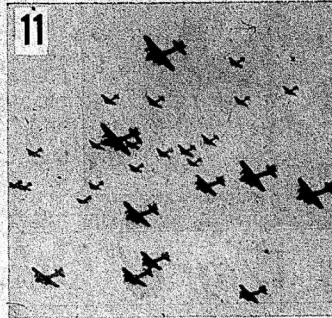

8 CAME DECEMBER 7, 1941 and the day which sealed Hitler's doom. His ally, Japan, sneaked into Pearl Harbor and sunk or damaged most of the American Pacific fleet while Jap envoys were "negotiating" in Washington. The following day we declared war on Japan; Germany and Italy declared war on us. It was now global war.

9 MILLIONS OF AMERICANS were called to the colors, trained intensively and within a year, on Nov. 8, 1942, we started after Hitler. On that date we landed at Casablanca, shown above.

10 RUSSIA OPENED UP on Nov. 19, 1942 and started driving the Nazis back. At Stalingrad, the Reds fought night and day until on January 18, 1943 whole Nazi armies surrendered.

11 BY THE THOUSAND we started sending Flying Fortresses and other bombers to give the Nazis a big dose of their own bitter medicine. The first wave blasted Berlin on Jan. 27, 1943.

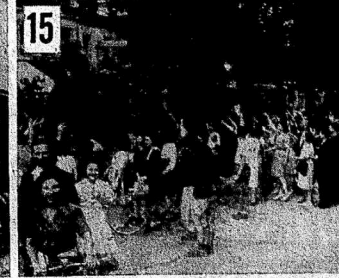

12 WITHIN SIX MONTHS, or on May 12, 1943, Rommel's Nazis and the Italians were driven from Africa. Sicily was invaded July 9, and captured Aug. 17, 1943. The Italian mainland followed.

13 ITALY SURRENDERED UNCONDITIONALLY Sept. 8, 1943. Mussolini was arrested and held prisoner until Hitler dropped paratroops and rescued him. Here is how Hitler greeted him later.

14 WITH THE GREATEST amphibious attack in history, we invaded the Normandy peninsula in France on June 6, 1944. The Fortress of Europe, so-called by Hitler, collapsed like a paper box. Driven back as much as fifty miles a day, the Nazis launched their robot bomb attacks against England in a last desperate attempt to stem the tide of defeat. Some of his staff tried to assassinate him.

15 BUT THE SUPERMEN proved to be little men when they met real fighting. Paris and nearly all of France were liberated on Aug. 26, 1944. The end of the war was at hand. Japan next.

CAMPUS ACTIVITIES

Westminster Guild Officers Elected

The Westminster Guild at their Spring Retreat at Starkweather Hall Saturday had a dinner, and the theme of the meeting was for getting the things which are behind and reaching forth unto those things which are to be. A business meeting was held later and the group planned a calendar of events for next year.

The group selected officers for next year: president, Geraldine Hall; vice president and worship chairman, Mary Louisa; secretary, Betty Waterman; publicity chairman, Betty Harger; entertainment and decoration, Mary Tull; music chairman, Virginia Wells; discussion leader, Joyce McKenchie. The election was followed by a worship service with an informal discussion of present religious demands upon college students, and a silent prayer.

Youth Fellowships Conduct Services

The Christian Youth Fellowship met at Starkweather Sunday and participated in a worship service. Mrs. William Shaw spoke on "With God as Our Guide in the Way of Courage". Ruth Bellman was the student leader.

Games were played and refreshments of orange juice and potato chips were enjoyed.

At Church House Sunday evening at 6:10 the Methodist Youth Fellowship met at the Church House. Rev. Walter H. Hoyer spoke on methods of reading the Bible and urged the group to search it out as living literature and as a help for living better lives. Rev. Hoyer also led the devotional service, and Ruth Parker read refreshments.
